Dear Advisers, Trustees and member IAGESians,
Greetings to you.

The month of May and June has been very fruitful and historic for IAGES. Apart from launching and distributing the 4th Edition of the IAGES text book of "Comprehensive Laparoscopic Surgery" that was very well compiled and edited by Dr. Ramesh Agarwalla and Dr. Sayandev Das Gupta and co-edited by me and other stalwarts of IAGES, there was yet another development in the history of IAGES with the introduction of its first National Advanced Therapeutic Endoscopy course for surgeon member of IAGES that was held in Guwahati from 22nd to 24th June 2018. The endorsed programme of Dr. Sashank Shah was held at Pune on 15th and 16th June 2018, and so was the IEF conference held at Nanavati Super Speciality Hospital, Mumbai. Once again the team of surgeons at Nayati Hospital Mathura lead by Dr. Achal Gupta, Dr. Yogesh Agarwala, Dr. Ajay Agarwal and Dr. Surendra Sharma proved that the future of Laparoscopy and IAGES need not be only held at the megacities and the Tier II and Tier III cities are now ready to organize it in the best possible way. The Mathura FIAGES course was unique in many aspects and met the criteria of one of the best disciplined course. In between we also had a one day short but very useful programme at Indore by Dr. Amitabh Goel on 8th July 2018 and other by Dr. Kalai Selvan Selvam Healthcare, Tamil Nadu on 24th July 2018. Overall it was a busy month for IAGES.

August is going to be more busy with various programmes lined up including the FALS courses. I request members to take benefit of those courses and attend in big numbers.

Dear Fellow IAGESians,

By this time most of you must have received your copy of the 4th Edition of the book Comprehensive Laparoscopic Surgery. Hope you enjoy it. This book is the ultimate result of the huge amount of work and effort by Dr. Ramesh Agarwalla and myself, the co- editors Dr. Zameer Pasha, Dr. John Thanakumar, Dr. Subhash Khanna, Dr. Ramen Goel and Dr. S. Easwaramoorthy. Editing such a book is no mean task and we had to sweat and swear and chase the contributors and the publishers. I must thank my daughter Sayantani, who took her time out from her crazy schedule to do the entire design of the book.

Since the last communication, we had two major events and a big number of short programs. The first was the mega FIAGE course at Guwahati, organized by none other but our President Dr. Subhash Khanna. It was the first for its kind and a huge success. The enthusiasm of the participants from all over the country was an eye opener.

FIAGES was held for the first time in the land of Lord Krishna in Mathura. Nayati Medicity, which hosted the event, was an eye opener with its state of the art infrastructure. My heartfelt thanks to Dr. Achal Gupta for organizing the whole event. I look forward to more such from him in the near future.

We had notable one day courses accredited by IAGES. Dr. Kalai Selvan conducted a Master Class in Laparoscopy at Chennai. Basic to Advanced Laparoscopic Surgery was conducted by Dr. Amitabh Goel at Indore. A very important CME on Publish or Perish was conducted by Dr. Jaya Maheswari at Jaipur.

We have a packed schedule of courses coming up – FALS, FIAGES etc. For the first time ever, as mentioned before, we will have a cruise conference. It will be both academics and fun and games. I promise that it will be the most enjoyable experience. I urge you to register for the conference as early as possible as accommodation is limited.

Please stay tuned for the reports of the onward journey of IAGES. Enjoy the academic feast. Our President Prof (Dr.) Subhash Khanna and his team is doing a wonderful job.

Long live IAGES,

Dr. Sayandev Das Gupta
